

SUNDAY DRIVE: Mansfield

Snow might be melting, but ALLI WALKER has 10 tasty reasons to visit the High Country

MANSFIELD REGIONAL PRODUCE STORE

68 High St, 5779 1404

Take a slice of the High Country home from this jam-packed produce store or enjoy a breakfast baquette ($12.50) or French toast with berries ($13.50).

THE TEA EMPORIUM

46-48 High St, 5779 1760

Choose between three gorgeous macaron flavours with a pot of tea ($11.50) or a silver platter of freshly made scones, jam and cream, also with tea ($11).

WITCHES BREW CAFE

corner Collopy and High streets,

5775 2623

Take the family for a pancake stack ($12.50) for breakfast. Bigger appetites will enjoy the Brew breakfast special with smoked salmon and avocado ($16.50).

DELATITE CELLAR DOOR AND LARDER

26 High St, 5775 2911

Enjoy a taste of the region with the ploughman's lunch ($14) and a glass of local Delatite wine or take home some cheese, bread and relish.

DECK ON HIGH

13-15 High St, 5775 1144

On a sunny afternoon, there is no better place than the upstairs balcony, enjoying the chef's Asian tasting platter ($17) and a glass of local wine.

CAFE 41

39-41 High St, 5775 2951

Check out the north-facing courtyard and order their famous vanilla slice ($6). You'll need two forks for this one.

TARTS CAFE

69 High St, 5775 1056

For an easy lunch, try the chicken wrap ($8.50) with a freshly squeezed juice ($5.50) and a piece of hedgehog ($3).

STAR CAFE

117 High St, 5775 2175

8

Homemade gelati ($5.50-$6) is a highlight at this cafe, recently opened in the town's old cinema building (known for hosting the world premiere of Man From Snowy River).

MANSFIELD PROVIDORE

23 Highett St, 5779 1703

Wooden crates are bursting with fresh fruit and veggies sourced from the growers at this new providore/cafe/deli in the old motorbikeshop.

MANSFIELD FARMERS' MARKET

mansfieldfarmersmarket.com.au

10

Every fourth Saturday of the month, Mansfield Primary is transformed into a gorgeous farmers' market from 8.30am-1pm.
